

Scientific programme, Friday (08/03/2024)

9.30-9.45	Opening Johannes Kabatek (University of Zurich)
9.45-10.15	Dominik Daniel Martínez and Johannes Kabatek (University of Zurich): DiLeCos – Digitalised Letters to Coseriu. Presentation of an online platform
10.15-10.45	Yoselin Henriques Pestana and Johannes Kabatek (University of Zurich): Letters to Eugenio Coseriu: the example of Portuguese and Brazilian linguists
10.45-11.15	Coffee break
11.15-11.45	Cristina Bleorțu and Johannes Kabatek (University of Zurich): Letters to Eugenio Coseriu: the example of Romanian linguists
11.45-12.15	Wiltrud Mihatsch (University of Tübingen): The Tübingen Coseriu Archives and its contribution to future research on Coseriu
12.15-12.45	Yann Stricker (University of Zurich): How do digital editions become FAIR? Challenges and best practice examples from the perspective of the Center for Digital Editions at UZH
13.00-15.00	Lunch (Dozentenfoyer)
15.00-15.50	Bernhard Hurch (University of Graz) and Sarah Melker (University of Padua): Big data - was nun? Ansprüche und Kontextualisierung eines großen Briefkorpus – das Hugo Schuchardt Archiv
15.50-16.40	Emma Tămăianu Morita (Kindai University, Osaka): E. Coseriu's correspondence: The Japanese connection. Glimpses into the destiny of linguistic ideas and their (human) context
16.40-17.00	Coffee break
17.00-17.50	Klaas Willems (Ghent University): On the relevance of the correspondence archive for understanding the background of Coseriu's theory of language
17.50	Conclusions
19.30	Dinner