

THE REVUE OF THE SWISS SOCIETY OF AMERICANISTS – LA REVISTA DE LA SSA

Invites researchers affiliated to Swiss universities, research centers, and international organizations to submit articles to its 82nd volume on Contemporary Amazonian Affairs. The edited volume focuses on socio-environmental trends affecting life in the Amazon, linking local impacts on livelihoods to global phenomena and, inversely, local developments to international agendas such as conservation and climate change.

Topics connected to agricultural frontier, extractivism, infrastructure development, environmental policies, health, and societal transformations are welcomed. Additional topics and abstracts of 300 words may be submitted to the editor for consultation. Accepted authors are expected to hand in papers of up to 7.500 words (including references) on 17 December 2021. Papers may be drafted in any of the revue's official languages (EN, ES, FR, GER, PT). LA Revista is open access and indexed per ISSN.

An author's workshop and a public conference will mark the publication of LA Revista in Switzerland in June (expected date).
