

Annual Meeting of the Swiss Anthropological Association (SAA)

“Give and Take – Anthropology as Exchange”

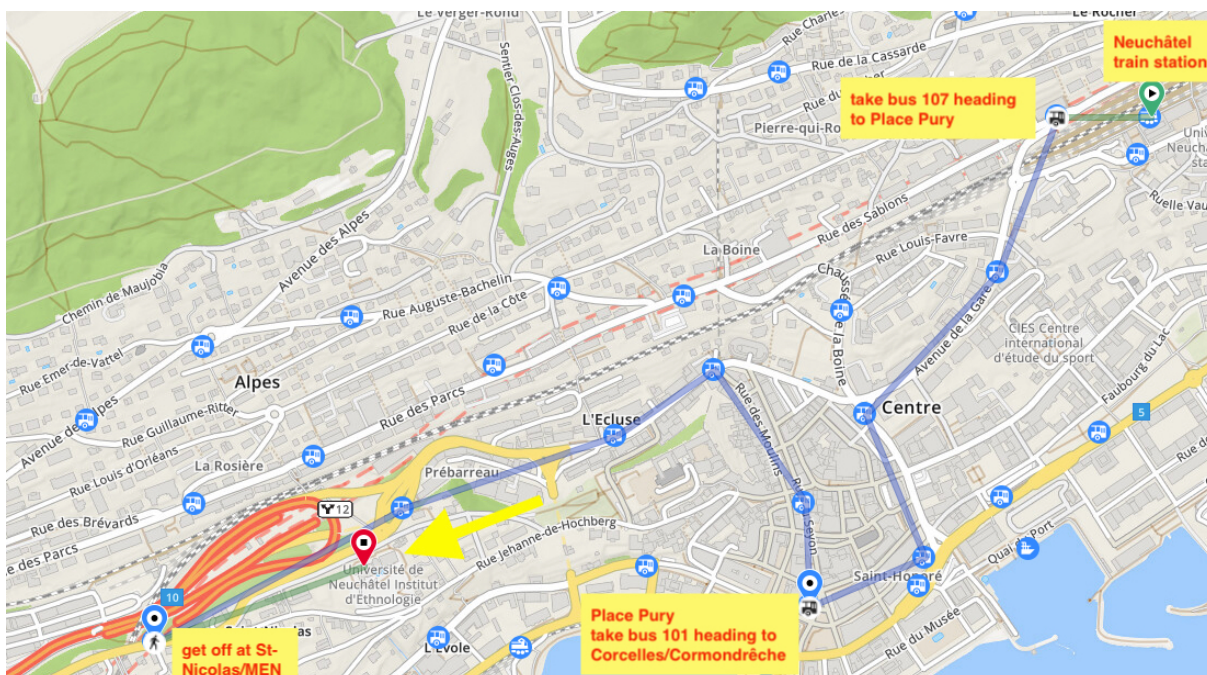

Institut d'ethnologie, Rue de Saint-Nicolas 4, 2000 Neuchâtel

November 10-12, 2022

DIRECTIONS – how to get there:

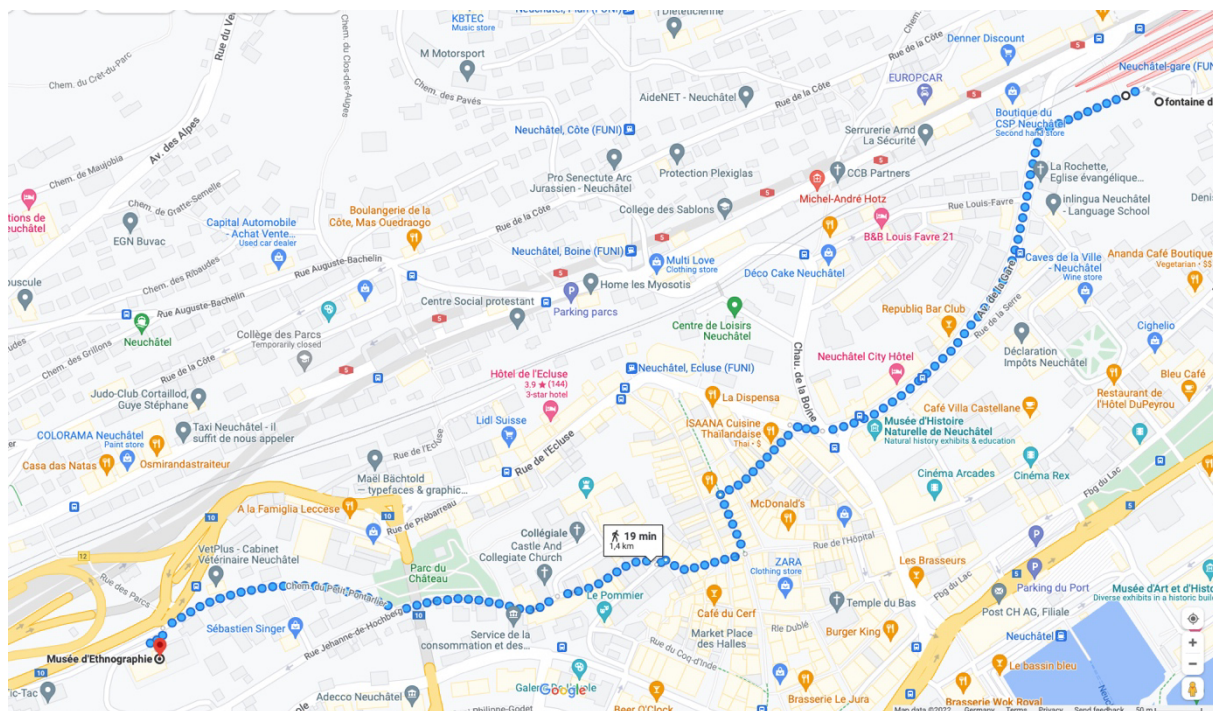

By train and by bus (22-25 minutes by bus)

From the train station in Neuchâtel, get on the bus 107 to Place Pury. From there, get on bus 101 (Corcelles-Cormondrèche line) and get off at St-Nicolas/MEN. From the bus stop, walk back on Chemin du Petit-Pontarlier till you see the Musée d'Ethnographie and Institut d'ethnologie, they are between the houses no. 15 and 11.

By foot from the train station (20-25 minutes by foot)

By car

Whether you are travelling from Lausanne, Bern or Biel/Bienne, find the road tunnels that span under Neuchâtel. Once you are there, check for and find the direction signs for “Neuchâtel-Vauseyon” and follow the trail so as to exit (SORTIE) at Neuchâtel-Vauseyon; once you’ve exited the motorway, carry on until you get to the gyratory; once you have entered it, drive along so as to complete a 355° circle to go back into the city; drive on to the lane on the right, straight on and past the police station on your left (Poudrières) until the junction with Rue St-Nicolas. Car park : blue-lined = free for an hour; for stays of over an hour: pay-and-display.
